Galations 6:9

Antoinette B. Evans, born in Charleston, SC, is a woman of excellence with many roles, who was chosen by God to minister to hurting women across the nation. She has been married for 20 years to Kenneth Evans and they have a beautiful daughter, Hadassah Evans. Antoinette is the daughter of Loretta Jackson and Wilmot Simmons. She is the founder and ministry leader of NDUCCSON, Branch Chief for the RTP Finance center of the US EPA, and the owner of NDUCCSON Tax & Financial Services. In 1992, she graduated from St. Augustine's College receiving her BS in Computer Science with a minor in Accounting. In 2003, she received her call into ministry. In 2006, she started NDUCCSON Outreach Ministry, a 501c3 nonprofit faith-based ministry, covered by the No Nonsense Kingdom Alliance under the leadership of Dr. Shirley R. Brown. The ministry has been an activate participant in serving the communities in and near Raleigh, NC since 2006. Furthering her call from God, Antoinette became a licensed minister in 2007 under the Full Gospel Baptist Church Fellowship at Solid Rock Ministries International, pastored by Bishop L. Foday Fararr. In 2012, she received a Master's in Business Administration from the University of Phoenix.

Since Antoinette received her call into ministry she has been a woman of action positioning herself as a yielded and obedient woman of God doing the Kingdom's work. She is involved in the MIMÉ, dance, and homeless shelter ministry, while faithfully teaching on the streets in Raleigh communities weekly. Her favorite scripture is "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thine ways acknowledge him and he shall direct thy paths" (Proverbs 3:5-6).

About the Ministry

EST. 2006

NDUECSON is a non-profit organization that ministers to the addicted prostitutes and homeless women on the streets. The ministry was started after a vision given to Antoinette by God to reach the women of the streets. NDUCCSON was started on October 2006, with a few members and God's mandate to go out and reach the nations; to tell the people about the goodness of the Lord.

He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned." Mark 16; 15-16
